

A movie is not news. Sinclair Broadcasting is using its collective ownership and control over the airwaves in certain markets to influence an election. This in and of itself is illegal. Those stations that air this approximately hour long political rhetoric without giving the other side the same time in an equivalent time slot should have their license to broadcast revoked.

The FCC must do its job and apply the rules to all stations.